The Duchess of Bedford, lady in waiting to Queen Victoria, started the practice of taking a pot of tea and light meal, privately in her boudoir during the afternoon. Later friends were invited to join her for “tea and a walk in the fields.” Other social hostesses quickly picked up on the idea and the practice became respectable enough to move it into the drawing room. Before long all fashionable society was sipping tea and nibbling sandwiches in the middle of the afternoon. This tradition has developed over the years. We recommend that guests begin their afternoon tea with finger sandwiches, followed by warm scones with clotted cream and strawberry jam, concluding with seasonal pastries. We recommend reserving in advance as our afternoon teas are bespoke, please speak to a member of staff who will be happy to help.
